Contributions to McCain Victory California (MVC) are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal income-tax purposes. MVC allocates contributions to John McCain (JM 2008), John McCain 2008 General Election Compliance Fund (Compliance Fund), the California Republican Party, and the Republican National Committee (RNC). Unless a contribution would exceed federal limits or a contributor designates otherwise, MVC will divide contributions as follows: For Individuals - The first $2,300 to JM 2008, the next $2,300 to the Compliance Fund, the next $10,000 to the California Republican Party's federal account, and the next $28,500 to the RNC. For Couples - The first $4,600 to JM 2008, the next $4,600 to the Compliance Fund, the next $20,000 to the California Republican Party's federal account, and the next $57,000 to the RNC. For Federal Multicandidate PACs - The first $5,000 to JM 2008, the next $5,000 to the Compliance Fund, the next $5,000 to the California Republican Party's federal account, and the next $15,000 to the RNC. Contributions to the Compliance Fund will be used solely for legal and accounting services to ensure compliance with federal law and not for campaign activities. Compliance funds may defray a portion of broadcast advertising, national and state office "overhead" and computer/website expenses. Contributions from corporations, labor unions, federal contractors, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status to MVC are prohibited. Federal law requires us to report the name, address, occupation, and employer of any contributor who gives more than $200 in an election cycle (for JM 2008 and Compliance Fund Contributions) or more than $200 in a calendar year (for RNC and California Republican Party Contributions).
