
Napa Valley Hospice & Adult Day Services is an agency that's close to my heart. For more than 30 years, they have been easing the journey for countless people facing their final days. Some of the words that come to mind are compassion, dedication and kindness.

This is very personal for me, because in 2006, Napa Valley Hospice took care of my own mother at the end of her life. I saw firsthand what a difference Hospice can make. So did my wife Mary, who now donates her time to visit patients as a Hospice volunteer.

In addition to exceptional end-of-life care, Napa Valley Hospice & Adult Day Services provides many other vital services to our community, including Alzheimer's specialty care, grief counseling for adults and children, and support services for caregivers who are caring for chronically or terminally ill family members.

Their motto is "We remember what's important." I can assure you, they do.

During the season of sharing, please join me in supporting Napa Valley Hospice & Adult Day Services.
