

JOIN WEST VALLEY REPUBLICAN WOMEN FEDERATED

THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 2014

Colleen grew up in the San Francisco Bay Area. She graduated from San Jose State University and completed graduate work at University of CA Davis and Santa Cruz. She married a career Air Force pilot, and when their two children were in high school, Colleen embarked on a 25 year teaching career in Vacaville where she taught junior high and high school students.

Colleen is a past president of the Capitol Art Society in Austin Texas, Solano County Arts Council, and founder and current president of the Vaca Valley Tea Party, in Vacaville, CA.

In spring of 2011 while in Houston, Texas at a True the Vote Conference, Colleen met Linda Paine, the co-founder of the Election Integrity Project as she was in the process of starting EIP here in CA. The following summer they crossed paths again as Colleen sought to put together an EIP team in Solano County.

More determined than ever to make a positive difference in the 2014 and 2016 elections, this past November, Colleen volunteered to serve as an EIP regional manager for the Bay Area Counties--the goal: to establish EIP teams in ALL of California's 58 counties. It will be a monumental task, but well worth the effort for the difference we can make.

She is determined to get the word out to any and everyone who believes that the integrity of our elections rests on "every legally cast vote accurately counted" and is willing to work toward that end.
